

Salvia nemorosa 'Caradonna'

Meadow Sage Caradonna

DESCRIPTION

'Caradonna' is erect, clump-forming perennial salvia that is noted for its bright dark purple stems and blue-violet flowers.

It typically forms a foliage mound to 12" tall.

In summer, dense terminal spikes of violet-blue flowers rise above the fragrant foliage.

Flowers are attractive butterflies.

Deer resistant.

QUICK FACTS

Plant Height: 12-18"

Width/Plant Spread: 12-18"

Hardiness Zone: 4-8

Flower Color: Blue-violet

Sun/Light Exposure: Full sun

Bloom Time: April to October

Medford Nursery

560-A Eayrestown-Red Lion Road, Medford, NJ 08055

Phone: 609-267-8100 Toll Free: 800-443-3314

www.medfordnursery.com